

Sunrise Avenue, Dream Like a Child

You
Nearly third of my height
You smile and make all wrong right
You believe the worlds right here
Try
To hear the big ones whisper
They try to make you smarter
But you pretend you just dont hear
Please please get away from me
Please please go and let me dream
I dont need any of you to tell me how
The rain can fall on me
Theres a faith in my heart I can do anything
If I just try hard
I dont need all the boundaries you build for me
And no I dont need no guide
Let me feel all the thirst I have inside of me
Let me dream like child
New
Everythings for the first time
For you the strange guy is fine
You believe theres good in us all
Stay
Close to those who feel right
They almost hold you too tight
They will keep you far from the fall
I dont need any of you to tell me how.
Dreaming of the seas and places
Dreaming of the skies and faces
Dreaming of the Sand and Kisses
Dreaming of the Love and Bliss
Dreaming of the Snow top mountains
Dreaming of the flies and fountains
Dreaming of the White wild horses
Dreaming of the world
