

Sunrise Avenue, Fail Again (Demo Version)

Hey man I can see you standing tall
on your feet again.
There were those dark days but you're far over them.
Say can you remember all the mess
far behind you.
They were all so sure you'd never find your way through.

Feels like
life for you today is only perfect
Seems like
sorrow and shame never was really there.
These are the moments that you keep inside your heart to guide you then
the day you fail again.

I am so sorry for the times
I wasn't by your side.
But now I found faith in you again
with my own eyes.
Say can you see the fear in me
you will fail again.
And you will be left alone although you'd really need them.

And it feels like
life for you today is only perfect
Seems like
sorrow and shame never was really there.
These are the moments that you keep inside your heart to guide you then
the day you fail again.

Feels like
life for you today is only perfect
Seems like
sorrow and shame never was really there.
These are the moments that you keep inside your heart to guide you then
the day you fail again.

Feels like
life for you today is only perfect
Seems like
sorrow and shame never was really there.
These are the moments that you keep inside your heart to guide you then
the day you fail again.

The day you fail again.
The day you fail again....
