

Sunrise Avenue, Forever Yours (Instrumental)

There are times I can leave my heart wide open
There are days I believe I can heal wounds on me

There are times I could come to you and hurt you
I could easily bring your tears
I could send you to hell, I know you

I will find something more
Someone I am made for
Shame on you baby, Forever yours

You were mine and I was yours for one night
You were mine and there is no one who's like me

These screams they wake me up in the night
They violently fill my room
They keep me awake, I hate you

I will find something more
Someone I am made for
Shame on you baby
Forever yours
