

Sunrise Avenue, Kiss and Run

Feels like the world has let me down
Feels as if Im ready to drown
Its 3 am, I lie awake thinking about my great escape
Im fine with all that I have left
I try to breathe and just forget
Im flying low because of you
My every thought leads back to you
Im not made to kiss and run
Say Im not the only one
Getting over you in a weekend
If on Monday Ill be fine
Why cant I sleep tight tonight
And just walk away and leave her
Cuz Im not made to kiss and run
Im pacing all over this place
Tracing the steps we failed to take
I miss you so inside my head
Have to remember to forget
Its just those eyes that kill me now
Intensity still stings my eyes
I wanna keep this hurting too
If its the last touch had from you
Im not made to kiss and run
Say Im not the only one
Getting over you in a weekend
If on Monday Ill be fine
Why cant I sleep tight tonight
And just walk away and leave her
Cuz Im not made to kiss and run
Im fine with all that I have left
Im trying to live with it every day
Doesnt help to Kiss and Run
