

Sunrise Avenue, Runaway

You need time alone to love me
You need the space to have me
And you know that Ive been trying to stay aside
You really like to own me
To show my friends youre my queen
You play the game so fine
Theres two sides, roles in love
Being as one and being apart
We have only one Im going crazy
Time after time youre not mine
You gotta leave to feel alive
Day after Day
I know Im gonna miss you all through the
Night after night you deny
Things that make me feel alive
I just wanna wake up and break up and runaway
You can bring the stars to my sky
You know the way to be mine
But ten cold nights one warm - its not enough
You said that Im the guy to die for
You told me that we were more
Than the world around
Theres two sides, roles in love
Being as one and being apart
We have only one Im going crazy
Time after time youre not mine
You gotta leave to feel alive
Day after Day
I know Im gonna miss you all through the
Night after night you deny
Things that make me feel alive
I just wanna wake up and break up and runaway
