

Sunset Black, You Pretend

Listen what they say about me
And watch how they act when I'm around
And listen what they say about me
I try to talk but they just turn around

And it didn't take that long for me to notice
That all these people were me
And it didn't take that long for me to notice
How fake you could be

I am what you pretend to be everyday

Thank you for trying
But I'd rather walk away

Listen what they say about me
And watch how they act when I'm around
And listen what they say about me
I try to talk but they just turn around

And it didn't take that long for me to notice
That all these people were me
No it didn't take that long for me to notice
How fake you could be

I am what you pretend to be everyday

Thank you for trying
But I'd rather walk away

I am what you pretend to be everyday
Thank you for trying
But I'd rather walk away
