

SUNSET SONS, She Wants

Should've been a doctor
Should've been a father
Yeah, am I the only one
To see in this something more?
Should've been a writer
Should've found a partner
Girl, I've got wings to fly
And you kept me on my toe

I am the only one
I am the only one
She wants
I am the only one
I am the only one
She wants

Should've been a doctor
Should've been a father
Check in my entire ma'am
I ain't that kind of fool
Could've been a lawyer
Would've been a liar
Should and would've cut 'em down
To get me to that show

I am the only one
I am the only one
She wants
I am the only one
I am the only one
She wants

Should have run away with me
Gave it enough tones but I did not see
I ain't never gonna leave you girl
Where are you gonna run if you can't hide?
Girl, you're gonna be right by my side
You ain't never gonna change your mind

I am the only one
I am the only one
She wants
I am the only one
I am the only one
She wants

She wants
She wants

You're the only one
You're the only one
She wants
You're the only one
You're the only one
She wants
