

Sunshine Anderson, Your Woman

Your Woman

Before you came I thought every man was the same
Thinkin to myself that its a dog gone shame
Then when we first met
I didnt quite know what to expect
But we've been together ever since and I have no regrets

You mean so much to me

Im so happy to be

Your Woman

Love is so had to find

Which is why im thankful that im

Your Woman

You and me somehow connected spiritually

Connected mentally

Connected physically

And so I believe all the obstacles that we've

Encountered along the way

Makes us strong today

You mean so much to me

Im so happy to be

Your Woman

Love is so had to find

Which is why im thankful that im

Your Woman

Many days I feared I would end up all alone

Never finding a love I can call my own

But then you came along and swept me off of my feat

And for the first time in my life I feel complete

You mean so much to me

Im so happy to be

Your Woman

Love is so had to find

Which is why im thankful that im

Your Woman

You mean so much to me

Im so happy to be

Your Woman

Love is so had to find

Which is why im thankful that im

Your Woman

You mean so much to me

Im so happy to be

Your Woman

Love is so had to find

Which is why im thankful that im

Your Woman
