

Sunshine Anderson, Your Woman (Interlude)

Your Woman

Before you came I thought every man was the same
Thinkin to myself that its a dog gone shame
Then when we first met
I didnt quite know what to expect
But we've been together ever since and I have no regrets

You mean so much to me
Im so happy to be
Your Woman
Love is so had to find
Which is why im thankful that im
Your Woman

You and me somehow connected spiritually
Connected mentally
Connected physically
And so I believe all the obstacles that we've Encountered along the way
Makes us strong today

You mean so much to me
Im so happy to be
Your Woman
Love is so had to find
Which is why im thankful that im
Your Woman

Many days I feard I would end up all alone
Never finding a love I can call my own
But then you came along and swept me off of my feat
And for the first time in my life I feel complete

You mean so much to me
Im so happy to be
Your Woman
Love is so had to find
Which is why im thankful that im
Your Woman

You mean so much to me
Im so happy to be
Your Woman
Love is so had to find
Which is why im thankful that im
Your Woman

You mean so much to me
Im so happy to be
Your Woman
Love is so had to find
Which is why im thankful that im
Your Woman
