

Superchic(k), Song For Tricia (Princes and Frog)

all princes start as frogs and all gentleman as dogs just wait till it's plain to see what we're growing up to be.. coz some frogs will still be frogs some dogs will still be dogs but some boys can become men just don't kiss us till then you hate men is what you say and i understand how you feel that way all girls dream of a fairy tail but what you got's like a used car sales man, trying to conceal what's wrong behind a smile and a song and i'm not saying that boys are not like that but i think you should know that some of us will grow because...

all gentleman as dogs
you found him is what you say and we all want you to feel that way if the frog you got seems cute enough to kiss it maybe frogs seem like that's all there is but just because you haven't found your prince yet doesnt mean your still not a princess what if your prince comes riding in while your kissing a frog what's he gonna think then so look in to his eyes are you a princess or a fly
