

Superchic(k), Stand Up

Livin' in this nightmare
Destroyin' my dreams
Hauntin' to myself
What regret keeps hunting
But can I change my ways
Of counting the days
That keep on fadin' away
I keep losing today
Whan it's gone
And the hourglass falls
Will I have more than regret to show for it all
Or will I wake up and start living my dreams
Instead of lettin' this nightmare take control of me

Live today through the future's lens
Don't wanna wish you could rewind and play it again

Stand up write the soundtrack for your life
It doesn't happen to you, you happen to life
Stand up, do something with your light
It doesn't happen to you, you happen to life

You're bored, gotta wonder if there's more
Waiting for the dream life you thought you had in store.
Trying to feel something you can chase a life that's thrilla
Living on the edge smoking drinking dream killas.
Couldabeen shouldabeen woulda been.. what might your life have been

Today you're not a has-been, but at your life's end will you have regrets than, have regrets than?
Are you ok with today if tomorrow is the end

Live today through the future's lens
Don't wanna wish you could rewind and play it again

Stand up write the soundtrack for your life
It doesn't happen to you, you happen to life
Stand up, do something with your light
It doesn't happen to you, you happen to life

We're all scared, gotta wonder whats out there,
Shooting down the ones who did what we wish we dared
Everybody's scared to Karaoke in the open Afraid we're not as special as what we might be hoping so we're frozen haven't chosen just going through the motions
Faith and belief, courage overrule emotions
Stand up and be counted for something when it's time
Decide where you stand, take your hands raise em high

Live today through the futures lens
Don't wanna wish you could reset and play it again

Stand up write the soundtrack for your life
It doesn't happen to you, you happen to life
Stand up, do something with your light
It doesn't happen to you, you happen to life
