

Superchick, Big Star Machine

1, 2, 3, 4

Could someone help me comprehend?

How my wanting to have friends

Is now this monster that I feed

It's popularity I need

When people think that I'm the deal

It helps me feel like I am real

But I think I lost the need

Looking for the Star Machine

I don't want any part of it

Everything is here today

Gone tomorrow

Big Star Machine

Ricky Martin or Monudo

Big Star Machine

VH1, where are they followed

Big Star Machine

How could I have been so shallow?

Big, Big Star Machine

Big, Big Star Machine

Big, Big Star Machine

Could someone help me comprehend?

How I came to judge my friends

On a scale of trendiness

And somehow I love them less

Not as hip as they could be

Through the eyes of Star Machine

It's a dumb philosophy

Judged by popularity

I don't want any part of it

Everything is here today

Gone tomorrow

Big Star Machine

Ricky Martin or Monudo

Big Star Machine

VH1, where are they followed

Big Star Machine

How could I have been so shallow?

Big, Big Star Machine

Big, Big Star Machine

Big, Big Star Machine

Everything is here today

Gone Tomorrow

How could I have been so shallow?
