

Superchunk, Brand New Love

Brand New Love

Restless eyes close
Maybe it'll go away
Please rest tomorrow
Bring a satisfied day

The restless urge in love
That's worth burning for
Surely it's that one consuming
Love to give you more

Any thought could be the beginning
Of a brand new tangled web you're spinning
Any one could be your brand new love
Any tie that holds could be broken
Tear your bitter world to the open
Any one could be your brand new love

You won't be the first
Twisted change is normal
Gossip dirt
Whisper to the nodding head
Thrilled you fell apart instead of them
They will
Any hope for a love could be killed
If you need a different face
There's definite time to destroy this place

Any thought could be the beginning
Of a brand new tangled web you're spinning
Any one could be your brand new love
So follow what you feel
You alone decide what's real
Any one could be your brand new love
