

Superdrag, Liquor

you never knew the things your beauty made me want to do as if you'd care as if you'd ever let me take you there

i guess you'll never see what you could have had in me it never could be true
thing i only could've felt inside of you i saw your eyes

i knew that you were gone it's no surprise i kissed your face
i didn't know it would invade your space

what you could've had in me
i guess that's true
