Superdrag, Means So Much

it means so much to have you around happy with you by my side but let's not make any late night promises that we won't keep to put up boundaries seems so cheap and i'll see you when i see you when i don't i'll think about your hair as black as night and eyes as brown as coffee grounds you showed me that i could care

it means so much to have you around happy with you being by but like the trees that shade the yard branches connect leaves that are apart

it means so much to know you're alive and how you've made this cold heart warm inside and as i'm feeling freshly thawed it'll mean so much to know you'll call and i'll see you when i see you when i don't i'll think about your hair as black as night and i could use you tonight to show me that i can care but it makes me scared i'm scared of my old shadow
