

Superdrag, Phaser

I don't even wonder if they're gonna put me under cause you're here now,
and I'm on fire.

Got no recollection
of his holy words' inflection throwing sparks now,
cause I'm on fire.

I'll
come down again, take you in my bed There's nothing to regret now, breathe you in like a cigarette now dream

Now dream
Now dream
Now dream

Everytime it flips me
when the fascination hits and I'm tripping
'round your head

One more resurrection
after living that rejection didn't kill me,
because I'm dead.

I'll
come
down again, take you in again
There's nothing to regret now, breathe you in light a cigarette now
dream

Now dream
Now dream
Now dream
Now dream
Now dream
Now dream.
