

Superdrag, The Staggering Genius

are you miserable
are you miserable tonight
you're invincible, indefensible seven deep and getting right

I hope you'll write some song where you mention all the wrongs i've done tell everyone you're happy and order up another one

yeah the genius staggers home yeah are you better off alone.

are you satisfied are you ever gonna be you're despicable, inexplicable and you're meaningless to me.

I hope you'll write some song where you
slip into oblivion.

are you better off alone
are you better off alone.
