Superdrag, Truest Love

you are my intoxicating wish so much more to live for than my fist if I want to breathe with you, close my eyes and let you see right thru that's a scary thing to do it's the very thing I do. it's the very thing I do put me on a supersonic trip. every time you wake me with your lips if I want to bleed with you, close my mouth and tell you that I do the truest lies are few. the truest lies are few but the truest love is you
