

Superflea, Centenary

They tell me you're sad I thought it was about me but it was something about your dad
they tell me these days you've been mostly keeping by yourself
and you don't care about your friends..

But I can help
yeah,I can help
if we keep each other company and I can be your special friend

Don't look back
when the walls around
start crumbling down and everyone just falls apart
'cause life's like that when you finally grab
a hold of something something else just slips right back

yeah,I can help
if we keep each other company
and I can be your special friend
