

Superflea, Panorama

I'm already missing you right after we said goodbye like tonight
not much to say these days I stay at home and play all day but I don't want to bore you girl

Wednesday I was home and I couldn't sleep I thought about you, and I thought about me sleeping pills won't work so I pace in my room I'm tired, but I can't help missing you everytime I think that I've had enough that I'm only being foolish and I should stop something always happens and that something is you I wonder if I'll have the strenght to leave this place, and just go

I think I'm going to leave ,girl I think I'm going to go away from this place but I can't forget you girl I know
I said that so many times but it's true

Cheap love is not what it used to be it doesn't feel enough and it doesn't feel free but I've been ready for more now for so long but love just goes in circles it laughs at me, it says:
"come here, have some more you know you can look but you cannot touch and you're cursed to play this game until I say stop"

And if I were to tell you girl would you understand, or would it be too much?
