

Superheist, Dear Enemy

Don't Fade Away!

Theres something wrong inside me,
And I can feel it climbing,
It sucks me in then spits me out and then I'm left to die and,
See through these bloodshot eyes,
This paper thin disguise
I pose a question in a letter to my enemy

PRE-CHORUS

Don't Drift Away,
Don't Fade Away.
I won't break!
And All I want is truth,

CHORUS

After all is gone, I'm losing all my strength to you,
I'm losing all my strength to you

I've got no place to hide,
I've got no place to hide,
I've got no place to hide,
I've got no place to hide,
There's something in me trying,
To get me out of this, mess,
I feel it multiplying,
See through these bloodshot eyes,
This paper thin disguise,
I pose a question in a letter to my enemy

BRIDGE

How could it all just fade? How could it slip away?
I've waited so damn long for me to feel this way,
Give everything I am to make it go away,
Fuck this misery, and I'll make it go away,
How could it all just fade? How could it slip away?
I've waited so damn long for me to feel this way,
Give everything I am to make it go away,
Fuck this misery, and I'll make it go away,

Don't drift away, Don't fade away,
And all I want is truth
Don't drift away, Don't fade away,
And all I want is truth

You're Wicked, You're Wicked, You're Wicked, You're Wicked,
Fuck You!

Don't Drift Away, Don't fade away,
Don't drift away, Don't fade away,
And All I want is truth!
