

Superheist, The Karma Division

It's so cold it freaks me out so many times I've gone without untold, was the truth now it's coming back to get you

Chorus
Like men I'll fight for everything that I believe we cannot hide
this karma on delivery

You're bold
you scream out loud and you forget what life's about I hope you realise now it's coming back to haunt you

Chorus

Your karma's on delivery
Your karma's on delivery

Now they can't, and they won't but you can, and you will They can't, and they won't
They can't, they won't
You can, you will
They can't, they won't
You can, you will

I see you falling!
I see you fall!

Like men I'll fight
you cannot hide

I see you falling!!
I see you...FALL!
