

Superheroes, I Want To Cry

Summer has gone
And I just can't take this feeling now
'Cause you're gone
For tonight I know you're feeling blue
And you're sad
Just as sad as I am feeling now
And you're mad
Just because I made you leave last night

I want to cry
I want to cry
I want to cry

I'd like to change her mind
I'd like to change her mind
I'd like to change her mind
I'd like to change her mind

Winter has gone
And you don't know where I have gone
'Cause you care
Care about the things we used to do
I can't sleep
Sleep 'cause you are gone
Tonight I know
I don't care
Why you are sad
I just don't know

I want to cry
I want to cry
I want to cry

I'd like to change her mind
I'd like to change her mind
I'd like to change her mind
I'd like to change her mind

Cry
I want to cry
I want to cry
I want to cry

I think I'll
Cry
I want to cry
I want to cry
I want to cry

I'd like to change her mind
I'd like to change her mind
I'd like to change her mind
I'd like to change her mind
I'd like to change her mind
