

Superheroes, So Far

You only wanted to dance with me 'cause you're lone again
But I heard you whispering things that I want forget Suddently we kissed and we were spinning around
I feel for you and when I look into your eyes
I decide that everything's gonna be alright
all the time
And when I look into your eyes
I decide that everything's gonna be alright
all the time

(chorus)

I know it's not even reality to you
But I'm trembling every morning when I wake up thinking of you

I'm thinking about you too
So send me a light
I feel for you and when I look into your eyes
I decide that everything is gonna be alright
All the time
( 'cause when I look into your) Eeeyes
I decide (that everything is gonna be al-) riiight
All the time
And when I look into your eyes I decide
Everything is gonna be alright
All the time
All the time
