

Superheroes, What's Going On?

Today I saw you at the beach
You were hanging around
And I saw you coming close to me
But when you tell me that I should leave
It makes me feel that I
That I just want to hold you

'Cause you and me know what's going on

And then I realized that I could cry
'Cause today I saw your smile
And I could see your fingertips just for a while and I
I want to hang myself till death
'Cause you you are the one i like
I only want to be with you

'Cause you and me know what's going on
