

Supreme Beings Of Leisure, Freezer

I live my life in a freezer
I live my life like millions of people
I left my heart in a freezer
I left my mind and I don't even know

And I've turned to stone
Yes I've turned to stone
And I've turned to stone
Left out alone

I left my thoughts in a freezer
I left my thoughts where nobody goes
I lost my soul in a freezer
I lost my heart where it's forty below

And I've turned to stone
Yes I've turned to stone

Too many visions in the same stream
One ?? living in a hazy dream
Too many voices make an ugly scream
They're hounding? me, I cannot see
Why must it be
I'm in a freezer

Free me from the freezer (x4)

Cause I've turned to stone
Yes I've turned to stone
Well I've turned to stone
Cause I've been alone

Too many visions in the same stream
One ?? living in a hazy dream
Too many voices make an ugly scream
They're hounding? me, I cannot see
Why must it be
I'm in a freezer

And I must be stone
In the freezer
