

Supreme Beings Of Leisure, Good

I disagree with your philosophy
What kiled the cat's not curiosity?
And you know that I'll do it again
Yes you know that I'll do it again
And there's no stoppin' me my friend
Not this time

I'll be good
I'll be good tomorrow
I'll be good
Another day

These palace walls are lined with excess
When wisdom calls I'm riding express
But I swear I won't do it again
No, I swear I won't do it again
And I promise this is the end
One last time

I take a bite
Open my eyes
Oh cover me
Yes I am naked

I've made my deals with moderation
But virtue's a fleeting fascination
Cuz I know that I'll do it again
Yes I know that I'll do it again
And it's silly for me to pretend
All this time
