

Sure Conviction, One Person Or Two

(M.

Liffengren/P. Liffengren)

I know you've been hurt, you've been criticized

You've been judged by hypocrites all of your life

And there's some people who've been pulling your chain

They've attacked your life and done it all in God's name

Don't allow one person or two

To turn you away, away from the truth

We're sorry for the ones who've judged you

Don't throw God's love away for the one person or two

They've come after your friends and the way you look

They've preached at your music and they've used the Book

But in their excitement and their holy zeal

They forgot God's love and instead they've preached hell

Ask Him yourself if He's truly real

Give Him a chance and His love will be revealed

He'll show you forgiveness and fill you within

All you have to do is ask Him in