

Sure Conviction, Sacrifice

(M. Liffengren/P. Liffengren)

I just got off the phone today
With a good friend of mine
She mentioned something bout her family
And having a real good time
Wouldn't it be great to see them
Wouldn't it be great to be with them
But I had my own plans for this is my life
I thought about all the words
That were shared between the two of us
For a moment I paused then I realized
If she gives into me, it would be great for my reason
Instead I could sacrifice, just a little bit of my time
If there's one thing that I've learned over the years
Without sacrifice - there isn't love
If a side of me just won't give in
And I'd rather be on my own
Than I'd never grow, I'd never know
Sacrifice - Sacrifice
I heard somebody say, to get love
You gotta give it away
And I felt something tugging at my heart that day
I knew I should pick up the phone
And tell her that I'd go along
When I did, she thanked me, now I wrote this song...
I once read about a man
Who gave of himself to the very end
He sacrificed His life for you and me
I wanna learn to be like Him
And give love instead of taking it in
For it's better to give than to receive
I still believe, in sacrifice
