

Sure Conviction, The Dream

(M.
Liffengren/P. Liffengren)
Standing on my porch
In the middle of the night
I see a rainbow shining so bright
Colors red to blue lighting up the sky
I see a rainbow shining so bright
Horses dancing on the rainbow one by one
Following the star the Chosen One
A bright light flashing for all the world to see
In an instant He's gone to eternity
In an instant He's gone to eternity
Colors red to blue lighting up the sky
I see a rainbow shining so bright
He's coming back
In power and glory
We need to look inside our hearts
And see if we're ready
