

Surfdog7, Demon Man

Waking up, my head is aching loud the stomach aches, the knies shake, my eyes deep in red it's just a new - i hope a better - day the will to fight, today stay dry, tomorrow not insane

everybody drinks too much, sometimes i feel the touch the demon man there deep inside is killing me without him could find a better way it breaks me up, tears me apart, driving me insane when i am falling, falling into touch a brand new world opens it's doors and then i crush little son i hope it is not too much my love for you is greater than the sun

everybody drinks too much, sometimes i feel the touch
the demon man there deep inside is killing me 3 seconds time to fly away maybe the sky, maybe the drug, sometimes maybe the cry

driving me insane
