

Susan Raye, Don't Let True Love Slip Away

Who's gonna love you after I've gone away
Who's gonna kiss the lips that I kissed today
Who's gonna hold you when you're old and gray oh don't let true love slip away
For once in a lifetime true love comes along so handle it gently don't let it go wrong
Treat it with kindness or soon it will fade if you let true love slip away

For true love is something that money can't buy
So don't take it lightly true love's a stuff of life
You'll travel forever down life's lost highway if you let true love slip away
So don't let true love slip away
