

Susan Raye, Song To Sing

And now I'll always have a song to sing
Loneliness to me was just an everyday affair
Morning noon and night that mist hung heavy in the air
Then you came into my life and filled my every need
Now I know what happiness can be
I've got a song to sing a bell to ring
And since the day I met you you have been my everything
I've got a happy face since you took your place
And now I'll always have a song to sing
[ organ ]
Being close to you just seems so natural to me
Being in your arms the only place I want to be
Nothing's strong enough to tear this love we have apart
For this day I'll hold you in my heart
I've got a song to sing...
And now I'll always have a song to sing
