

Susan Tedeschi, Looking For Answers

How many times must I sit here and tell you goodbye
How many times must I sit all alone and cry
How many times must I ask mercy on me
How many times must I beg to be free

Well I'm lookin' for answers, lookin' for answers that nobody knows
Well I'm lookin' for answers, lookin' for answers that nobody knows
Well I'm lookin' for answers from above not from below lord

How many times must I learn to live
How many times must I learn to love to give
How many times must I get down on my knees to pray
How many times must I pray did you say

Well I'm lookin' for answers, lookin' for answers that nobody knows
Well I'm lookin' for answers, lookin' for answers that nobody knows
Well I'm lookin' for answers from above not from below lord

Lord I love you in so many ways
Lord I love you each and every day
Now is the time when I must ask you why
Why must we live and why must we die

Well I'm lookin' for answers, lookin' for answers that nobody knows
Well I'm lookin' for answers, lookin' for answers that nobody knows
Well I'm lookin' for answers from above not from below lord
