

Susan Tedeschi, The Feeling Music Brings

I wanna feel, feel the love that music brings
And I wanna be a piece of life in all livin' things
I know what's in my heart and my soul tells me to sing
I'm gonna be thankful for this feeling that music brings
Oh, it brings

Now I never thought selfishness could tear such a hole
And I never realised how we could be one and still all alone
I'm gonna get myself up and know I'm gonna get up and sing
I'm gonna be thankful for this feeling that music brings
Oh, it brings

Now I'm so thankful I've heard a voice deep inside
Saying hallelujah and let music be your guide

Now I never thought I could feel a sadness that could bring me so down
And I never thought there'd be a time where my heart had no song
I'm gonna get myself up and know I'm gonna get up and sing
I'm gonna be thankful for this feeling that music brings
Oh, it brings

And I'm so grateful I've heard a voice deep inside
Singing hallelujah, oh there's no more need to cry

So I'm gonna pick myself up, up of the ground
I'm gonna get up and sing, I'm gonna sing a joyous song
And I'm gonna sing hallelujah for this love I feel inside
I'm gonna sing hallelujah let music be your guide
Oh, your guide

I'm gonna sing hallelujah, oh I'm gonna sing
Hallelujah, for this feeling that music brings
Oh I've gotta sing now
Oh I'm gonna sing a joyous song
Oh yes, I know that I'm thankful
