

Susan Werner, Did Trouble Me

When I closed my eyes so I would not see
My Lord did trouble me
When I let things stand that should not be
My Lord did trouble me
When I held my head too high too proud
My Lord did trouble me
When I raised my voice too little too loud
My Lord did trouble me

Did trouble me
With a word or a sign
With the ringing of the bell in the back of my mind
Did trouble me
Did stir my soul
For to make me human, to make me whole

When I slept too long, slept too deep
"My Lord did trouble me"
Put a worrisome vision into my sleep
"My Lord did trouble me"
When I held myself away and apart
"My Lord did trouble me"
And the tears of my brother did move my heart
"My Lord did trouble me"

Did trouble me
With a word or a sign
With the ringing of the bell in the back of my mind
Did trouble me
Did stir my soul
For to make me human, to make me whole

And of this I'm sure, of this I know
"My Lord will trouble me"
Whatever I do and wherever I go
"My Lord will trouble me"
In the whisper of the wind, in the rhythm of a song
"My Lord will trouble me"
To keep me on the path where I belong
"My Lord will trouble me"

Will trouble me
With a word or a sign
With the ringing of the bell in the back of my mind
Will trouble me
Will stir my soul
For to make me human, to make me whole
Make me human, to make me whole
