

Susan Werner, I Will Have My Portion

and some would say that time has passed me by some would say... that the wells have all run dry
some would say
that's how it has to be so some would say but i beg to disagree

'cause I know good fortune
waits for me somewhere
i will have my portion
i will have my share
i'll keep my feet in motion til they carry me there

'cause I do believe there's a harvest in the field i do believe there's truth to be revealed
i do believe
there's treasure to be found and I do believe there's enough to go around

and i will have my share

'cause somewhere there's a blessing that will bear my name and soon or late it's coming to me just the same i can't wait to see what's set aside for me with every new sunrise i'm gonna keep my eyes wide open

'cause i know...
'cause I know...
'cause I know...
I know good fortune

yes, i will
