

Susanna and The Magical Orchestra, Believer

Didn't think you would trust me
Thought you would see what I see
This days have been good for me too
But I can't stay
You know why
Didn't want this to end like this
Thought I might could convert
These nights have been sad for me too
But I don't pray
You know why
You are a believer
I am not
Didn't think I could ever love
So I had to destroy it all
But you will do find someone new
When I am gone
You know why
You are a believer
I am not
