

Susanna Hoffs, No Kind Of Love

Written by Susanna Hoffs, David Kahne, Scott Cutler & Ross Rice

Produced by David Kahne

Released on 'When You're A Boy' (1991)

Never thought I'd feel this way
You swore your love on all our mothers
But that was only yesterday
Now here's that pain in all those colors.

You step right up, you sound so sweet
You make a promise you can't keep.

No kind of love
No kind of anything that I really need
I'd give up all my heart
If there was somebody there for me
(Somebody there for me).

I never thought you'd feel this way
To act like I was born to suffer
What was that you tried to say
You take a girl and try to love her.

You step right up, you act so clean
I'm just a voice on your machine.

No kind of love
No kind of anything that I really need
I'd give up all my heart
If there was somebody there for me
(Somebody there for me).

Sometimes I really need you
(And I find) you've gone and left me far behind
I'm trying to believe you
(Or to leave you) but you never have the time.

No kind of love
No kind of anything that I really need
I'd give up all my heart
If there was somebody there for me.

I'd give you all my heart
If you was somebody there for me.
