

Susanna Hoffs, Without You

Written by susanna hoffs & marty willson-piper

Produced by matt wallace

Previously unreleased (1994)

I'm tired of chasin' rainbows

I'm tired of chasin' stars

I just want us to be happy

Where we are.

Is that too much to ask for

I'll ask anyway

I know what we've got

And I don't wanna throw it away.

Oh yeah

Hope that all your dreams come true

I really do

Can't imagine my life without you.

Oh yeah

Can't imagine my life without you

Oh yeah, without you.

Got a pocket of time (got a pocket of time)

A heart full of soul (a heart full of soul)

And I wanna be with you

When I grow old.

Is that too much to ask for (oh no)

In this day and age (day and age)

How can I tell you

How I don't wanna throw it away.

Oh yeah

Can't imagine my life without you

Oh yeah, without you.

Wow! woh!

Oh yeah.

Is that too much to ask for (is that too much to ask for)

In this day and age (day and age)

Don't want it to end

Another day.

Oh yeah

I hope that all your dreams come true

I really do

And I can't imagine my life without you.

Oh yeah

Can't imagine my life without you

Oh yeah, without you.

Without you, oh yeah

Can't imagine my life without you

Oh yeah, without you.

Without you, oh yeah.
