

Suspyre, Apex

Music: Rossetti, Skibinsky, Myers, Lyrics: Barton

A narrow vision of a child
Streaming the emerald scenes
We are the slivery image
On an apex of green

Im your temptation
I have recently been
Strangling your voice
Do you hear my screams
I am the pulsing rage
Between the noise

Take that vision and find a goal
Please liste carefully
Life will shake the world around you
Before you move your feet

Dont ever be consumed by your passion
Leave it in the spirit of your children

This is light
You should know
You are the last hope

Im waiting
To hear you
I want to believe

All this time
You had me
You are my reason

My apex
Youre watching
The changing of me

This is the silence of your mind
I hope that you take the chances
This time...
