Suzanne Vega, Tom's Diner

I am sitting
In the morning
At the diner
On the corner

I am waiting At the counter For the man To pour the coffee

And he fills it Only halfway And before I even argue

He is looking Out the window At somebody Coming in

"It is always Nice to see you" Says the man Behind the counter

To the woman Who has come in She is shaking Her umbrella

And I look
The other way
As they are kissing
Their hellos

I'm pretending Not to see them Instead I pour the milk

I open
Up the paper
There's a story
Of an actor

Who had died
While he was drinking
It was no one
I had heard of

And I'm turning
To the horoscope
And looking
For the funnies

When I'm feeling Someone watching me And so I raise my head

There's a woman On the outside Looking inside Does she see me? No she does not Really see me Cause she sees Her own reflection

And I'm trying Not to notice That she's hitching Up her skirt

And while she's Straightening her stockings Her hair Is getting wet

Oh, this rain It will continue Through the morning As I'm listening

To the bells Of the cathedral I am thinking Of your voice...

And of the midnight picnic Once upon a time Before the rain began...

I finish up my coffee It's time to catch the train
