

Suziquatro, She Knows

(Quatro/Tuckey)

It's a sad sad cry
It's a funny feelin' that I know
When your alibis
And your corny disguise
Make me hurt so
And I just can't win
'Cos the shape she's in
Makes me feel so low
It's a scary feeling
With a double meaning
That she knows
She knows

Well it's the same thing every night
Over and over we fight
And you won't back down
She's the best in town
When I ask you why
It's the same reply

You said she knows She knows
She knows the way

It's her long blonde hair and the gleam in her eye
And it hurts my pride
Just to think that it gets to you
That I can't satisfy you
But she aint nothing new
My love is useless when she gets through
She's a master of pleasure
She does it much better
Than I do
I do

Well it's the same thing every night
Over and over we fight
And you won't back down
She's the best in town
When I ask you why
It's the same reply
You said she knows She knows
She knows the way
Well it's the same thing every night
Over and over we fight
And you won't back down
She's the best in town
When I ask you why
It's the same reply
You said she knows
She knows She knows the way
She knows She knows
She knows the way
She knows She knows
She knows the way
