

Sven Degen, Be Complete

sometimes i wonder what is going on in my brain sometimes i ask myself do they feel the same one day up they got all my sympathy next day down feelin bad living here in misery and i cry
i cry
cry cry cry

dont know your face babe even dont know your name but i wish with all my heart that we will meet in time you'll make me strong and i'll give you all
bla bla bla

i dont want
want to fight no more
make the sky be blue
i want to want to go back home
hope you'll be there too
