

SVRCINA, Between Us

Honest
You never pretend with me
You're yourself and I notice

Regardless
For me it's been the hardest thing
Every move questioning

If I unfold like a flower
Will it die on the vine every time, when I let you get closer?
Can we lie side by side without fading away?

Ooh I'm giving up
I think it's gonna be a long night, long night
Ooh no matter what
I'm telling you everything, everything, till
Nothing's in between, nothing's in between us
Nothing's in between, nothing's in between us
Nothing's in between, nothing's in between us
All of my secrets till nothing's between us

My pride is Always telling me the wrong thing
Close the door, keep it quiet
But I'm trying
To fight back the feeling
Dive into oceans
Right here with you

Ooh I'm giving up
I think it's gonna be a long night, long night
Ooh no matter what
I'm telling you everything, everything, till
Nothing's in between, nothing's in between us
Nothing's in between, nothing's in between us
Nothing's in between, nothing's in between us
All of my secrets till nothing's between us

If I unfold like a flower
Can we lie side by side without fading away?
Closer
Can we lie side by side?

Ooh I'm giving up
I think it's gonna be a long night, long night
Ooh no matter what
I'm telling you everything, everything, till
Nothing's in between, nothing's in between us
Nothing's in between, nothing's in between us
Nothing's in between, nothing's in between us
All of my secrets till nothing's between us

Ooh I'm giving up
I think it's gonna be a long night, long night
Ooh no matter what
I'm telling you everything, everything, till
Nothing's in between, nothing's in between us
Nothing's in between, nothing's in between us
Nothing's in between, nothing's in between us
All of my secrets till nothing's between us
