Swandive, Losing My Religion

Ooh, life is bigger Bigger than you, and you are not me The length that I will go to The distance in your eyes Oh no, I said too much, I said enough

That's me in the corner That's me in the spotlight losing my religion Trying to keep up with you And I don't know if I can do it Oh no, I've said too much, I haven't said enough

I thought that I heard you laughing I thought that I heard you sing I think I thought I saw you try

Every whisper Of every waking hour, I'm choosing my confessions Trying to keep an eye on you Like a hurt, lost and blinded fool Oh no, I said too much, I said enough

Consider this Consider this the hint of the century Consider this the slip that brought me to my knees failed What if all these fantasies come flailing around Now I've said too much

I thought that I heard you laughing I thought that I heard you sing I think I thought I saw you try

That was just a dream That was just a dream

That's me in the corner That's me in the spotlight losing my religion Trying to keep up with you And I don't know if I can do it Oh no, I've said too much, I haven't said enough

I thought that I heard you laughing I thought that I heard you sing I think I thought I saw you cry

That was just a dream That was just a dream That was just a dream Just a dream Just a dream
