

Swans, Lavender Girl

choking while laughing
the dog splits open his steel heart cracks and his blood pumps out on the sidewalk you laugh out loud the sound hangs in the air and discolours the walls and poisons your mind it sticks to your mind [x2] bolt the door shut
and sit down at the table while hiding your teeth your insides split open you choked on a laugh [x2]
