

Swans, Will We Survive

I heard your voice in my mind - you were lying
I saw you under the door - you were sleeping
An ocean bleeds in your veins - now you're melting
Your hand holds onto the sun - protecting
The air is red and cold - in your insides
I feel your tongue in my mind - caressing
I feel your eyes in mine - remembering
You peel my body away - you're emerging
I put my mouth on your name - and I swallowed
I heard a sound in your chest - it was hollow
Your hand was under my skin - yes I'm fallow
I'll curl my body inside - to see through you
I love you more than my mind - but I'm lying
I can't remember the words - but I loved you
I can't remember my name - you live through me
I can't remember the words - now I'm lying
I can't go on with the song - but you're singing.
