

Sweet, Big Apple Waltz

Manhattan Skyline, surround me
Just like a lady, you're still holding
Your light burning for me to see
'Cause I do most anything for all those nights that you bring to me
All of your love
I've been so long, in the city
The city has been, so long inside of me
Been so long, it's a pity, I'm so far away
But I still do, the Big Apple Waltz
I buy an empire, in any state
Building the future, around you
'Cause where love grows, it's never too late
We'll paint a heart, on the wall
For the whole of the world to see
All of our love
I've been so long
Loving you, is my feeling, her dej-vu
Loving you, I know it's true, oh yeah
We'll paint a heart, on the wall
For the whole of the world to see
