

Sweet Matthew, Behind The Smile

I haven't been a good friend for a long long time
you know I wasn't happy
behind the smile
anywhere you look a reason to believe but think of what it took to bring me to my proper place and I haven't been a good friend
while you've been mine now am I by your side or standing in your way
'cause if this is a sign I don't know what it's s'posed to mean
and I haven't been a good friend
while you've been mine
I have seen my perfect day I have watched it fade away you know I'm fighting to be real
behind the smile
